

BRB

IN OUR OFFICE

BRB - ZZZzzzZZZ

In our office we have blurred lines between working hours and fun times. The ping pong breaks and coffee rituals are the small things that make us inspired to do great work. But the small sized office can be compared to sharing a room with your sibling. It is great to be able to be together, but sometimes you need a break for yourself. BRB (Be Right Back) allows us to regain energy by taking a rest. It is about feeling free to create your own norms in the office and to do the things that make you feel good.
